Rejoicing in God

You may have heard the saying, attributed to the ancient Greek philosopher Heraclitus, "change is the only constant in life." It seems things around us are always changing, some for the better, and some for the worse. Scripture teaches us there is One who never changes, and He is God. "I am the Lord, I change not."—Malachi 3:6

"Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and cometh down from the Father of lights, with whom is no variableness, neither shadow of turning."—James 1:17

Sometimes change around us is for the better when we learn a new skill or acquire a time-saving invention that makes us more productive or successful. However, God does not change—He is perfect. He cannot get better or become wiser or more holy or more just. Things around us break down and wear out and must be replaced, but not God. He is "the same yesterday, and to day, and for ever."—Hebrews 13:8

We can rejoice in knowing that we serve an unchanging God, and a God who knows us and loves us. "For we have not an high priest which cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities; but was in all points tempted like as we are, yet without sin."—Hebrews 4:15 When change overwhelms us, we can take comfort in a God who never changes. Rejoice in the Lord is on the air to encourage Christians and to proclaim the Good News to a lost world in need of a Savior. For over 35 years, God has sustained us through the prayers and gifts of His people. As your walk with the Lord has been enriched by Rejoice, consider joining others who support this ministry, so we can continue to fulfill the Great Commission.
