

TAKE A BREAK AND BE ENCOURAGED.

Serving in a ministry is a blessing that brings distinct challenges and opportunities. Rest and recharge during Enrichment Retreat through encouraging workshops and relaxed downtime.

You'll hear from experienced pastors who've faced the same challenges as you and be encouraged by sessions specific to your ministry needs. You'll return to your church spiritually refreshed and ready to serve with renewed energy and love.

RENEW
Empowering a Holy, Healthy, Hope-Filled Church

A refreshing getaway for pastors and ministry leaders

YOU'RE INVITED

Your church is more than a building—it's a body of believers that make up the hands and feet of Jesus to a lost world. As an ambassador for Christ and a real person (with physical and spiritual needs), you play a crucial role as a leader and member of your church.

This year's retreat will focus on renewing your vision for a holy, healthy, and hope-filled church. Dynamic speakers, practical workshops, and opportunities for relaxation will make your stay refreshing and full. You'll dive deeper into topics aimed to increase your leadership skills and prepare you to navigate your ministry's future.

Get ready to refocus, relax, and renew your soul with like-minded individuals who are all in for Christ!

GENERAL SCHEDULE

MARCH 12–14, 2024

TUESDAY

Your first main event is the opening dinner buffet at 5 p.m. followed by a general session at 6 p.m. and 7 p.m. You are welcome to come to Pensacola earlier in the day to settle in to your hotel room, shop at nearby malls, or meet up with PCC students from your church or school.

Optional activity: Golf Tournament at 8 a.m.

WEDNESDAY

After breakfast, you'll hear from featured speakers in two general sessions and attend a couple of workshops about your specific area of ministry. You'll still have plenty of free time in the afternoon to visit area attractions like Fort Pickens and Historic Downtown Pensacola or just enjoy the beautiful white sands of Pensacola Beach. End your day with a main session presented by Dr. Jeff Redlin at Campus Church at 7 p.m.

THURSDAY

Start your day with encouraging sessions to refresh your passion for ministry. The final session ends at 11:45 a.m. with lunch to follow.

Optional activities: Sports Center, Camp o' the Pines (free), and a Dolphin Cruise (additional cost)

ENGAGING WORKSHOPS

Attend practical workshop sessions focused on your area of ministry—or any that interest you! Check out a few of the most anticipated sessions below.

WORKSHOP SESSIONS PREVIEW

Strategic Planning for Ministry: Preparing for Growth and Next-Level Ministry

Amidst rapid change and diverse needs, a clear strategy aligns a church's vision, goals, and resources for impactful outreach, ministries, and community engagement. Learn how strategic planning can assist a church in adapting, innovating, and building connections, ensuring its influence extends beyond its walls.

How to Protect Your Ministry While Engaging Your Community

Learn about recent legal and cultural developments and hear proactive steps your ministry can take to build and maintain solid legal protection in critical areas of concern, while setting a strategy for preserving religious freedom and engaging the community around your church.

Renewing Rural Churches in the 21st Century

Rural churches face many unique challenges but great opportunities to influence their community for the cause of Christ. Discover the personal steps to empower a rural church to rekindle its spiritual core and outreach to the community.

Ministry Expansion Solutions

Learn best practices for budgeting, day-to-day operations, hospitality, and outreach. This workshop guides churches toward maximized growth, excellent stewardship, and increased community influence.

Better Counselors: Practical Commitments to Regularly Improve the Quality of Local Church Counseling

Ministry leaders often feel unprepared to counsel, despite counseling's vital role in pastoring. This session offers practical guidance to enhance your counseling skills as you support your congregation.
