Overview

Each week’s lesson provides a devotional thought or teaching suggestion at the top. Lessons also give a simple step-by-step guide for lesson preparation.

Preparing to Teach

You have taught the children in your class to pray, but are you regularly praying for them? You can pray that God will raise up many young Christians from your class who will victoriously live for God. Keep a calendar listing each child’s birthday. In private, pray diligently for each child whose birthday falls that month. During class time, recognize each child who had a birthday in the past week and pray for them aloud. As you pray for the children, they will feel like they are important to you and to God.

Call on 2 children to pray who have not prayed publicly. Ask before class. Tell them one or two things to thank God for. If they hesitate while praying, assist them. Then you pray a brief prayer. Do this each week until all the children have publicly prayed.

• the shift that moves us from fear to faith,
• how to avoid self-inflicted pain,
• how daily Bible study transforms our lives,
• and so much more.

You’ll never leave your time in this ICU wishing you hadn’t come or wondering “What do I do with this?”
