SPEAKERS

Shelly Hamilton is a respected women’s conference speaker who has faithfully served in the ministry of Majesty Music. Alongside her late husband, Ron, she helped lead and produce many beloved resources—including Patch the Pirate Adventures, the Majesty and Rejoice hymnals, and numerous choral and keyboard works—while also serving for 21 years in music ministry at Calvary Baptist Church. Today, as Majesty Music continues through the work of their daughter Megan and son-in-law Adam Morgan, Shelly continues to encourage others through speaking and writing.

Christy Copeland trusted Christ as her Savior at a young age and later attended Pensacola Christian College, where the Lord led her to marry her husband, Kurt. She has faithfully served alongside him in ministry for many years—from youth ministry in Florida, to nearly 26 years at Franklin Road Baptist Church, and now as pastor’s wife at Lighthouse Baptist Church in Theodore, Alabama. A devoted wife, mother, and grandmother, Christy is known for her encouraging spirit and deep trust in God’s faithfulness through every season of life.

Chauntel Walton grew up in a Christian home on the island of Antigua, where she was educated using Abeka throughout her schooling. Although she trusted Christ as a teenager, it was during her freshman year at Pensacola Christian College that she fully surrendered her life to the Lord. Today, she faithfully serves alongside her husband, Jonathan, in ministry. As a pastor’s wife, Chauntel leads their church’s Women’s Ministry. Her highest calling, however, is in her home, where she invests in her family as a devoted wife and a stay-at-home, homeschooling mother to their three daughters.

Spiritual retreat with God’s Word

Exciting workshops
& activities

Accommodations

Camp o' the Pines is in a beautiful, wooded setting with sprawling, rolling hills in northern Escambia County, Florida. Modern cabins (carpeted, air-conditioned, with bath) have bunk beds to provide comfortable accommodations.

All buildings are handicap accessible. Our camp is a smoke- and alcohol-free facility. Bedding is provided or you may bring your own; however, please bring personal items, towels, and modest swimwear. Please submit roommate requests with registration. Bottom bunks are on a first-come, first-served basis. No provision is made for children (infant–high school).

Activities

Camp o' the Pines offers paddleboats, zip lines, swimming, water slides, axe throwing, hiking, and more! New workshops are optional for you to enjoy.

Dress

General Activities—Casual, knee-length dresses, skirts, and shorts, along with loose-fitting jeans, slacks, or capris, are appropriate for camp.

Zip Lines—Wind/athletic pants are recommended and should be loose fitting. Enclosed shoes are required.

Pool—Women should bring modest swimwear and towels if they plan to use the pool or water slides.

Cost

Conference fee is $115 per person through October 22, and $125 after October 22. Fee includes lodging, meals (Thurs. evening through Sat. brunch), and conference materials (crafts extra). Full payment of conference fee is required when registering. There are no discounts given for partial attendance of the conference.

Bring friends—attend FREE! Invite your friends to attend the conference with you. If you submit seven or more ladies' registrations with yours, you attend free! (The ladies must attend the conference.)

Full refunds are given for those who cancel reservations by phone by October 29. After that time, a $30 cancellation fee will be subtracted from the refund.
