To God be the glory, great things He hath done.

Beka Horton

Beka Horton dedicated herself to God's work as a teenager. When God gave direction, she obeyed. She worked tirelessly to accomplish the tasks before her—teaching, writing, editing, and leading. No job has been too small or too difficult; she willingly and cheerfully labored wherever there was a need.

She and her husband were united in serving the Lord. Their first priority was to bring children and youth to Christ and train them in the Christian way of life. The Lord chose not to give them children.

Beka taught the Bible to all ages—children, high school and college students, and ladies; many trusted Christ as Savior.

She attributed her accomplishments to God.

Two PCC campus buildings are named in her honor—Rebekah Horton Library and A Beka Building.
