The palm tree is tall and slender, with a full, green frond. In the foreground, there are some bushes and smaller trees with yellowing leaves, suggesting an autumn setting. The sky is blue with some light clouds.

FINANCE YOUR DEGREE

Scholarship

The GA Program includes a scholarship to help cover the expenses of completing a graduate degree. The scholarship assists you in two areas:

Tuition

Your tuition and program fees will be paid in full by your GA scholarship. Depending on the program you choose, based on the 2024–2025 pricing, the tuition portion of the scholarship is valued between $14,877 and $47,606.

Living Costs

A portion of your housing and meal costs will be covered by your scholarship.

Sample Value of the Program

over two school years

The GA scholarship covers your tuition, fees, and even most of your living cost—leaving you with minimal out-of-pocket costs. Your scholarship value is over $20,000!

Pay (28 hours of work per week at $13.25 per hour)*	$30,528
Scholarship (tuition, fees, meals, and a portion of housing)	$24,262
Total	$54,790

International students are limited to working 20 hours a week.*

ENJOY YOUR BENEFITS

Work Placement & Hours

In addition to the GA scholarship, you'll work 20–28 hours per week, depending on your academic program and citizenship.

In any of the positions you hold, you'll gain valuable work experience. There are a diverse range of work areas—like Security and Facilities Management or Abeka Publishing, education, and Advertising. You may be placed in more than one area, depending on the need.

Your on-campus job will also give you essential leadership training and roles. You won't just be making money—you'll be learning and growing, adding skills to your résumé, all while working in a Christ-centered environment.

Note: Work placement is based on ministry needs and may vary each semester. Because these needs can change quickly, you will be informed of your job placement the week before the semester starts.

Pay

Your starting pay will be $13.25 an hour for the work you do as described under Work Placement & Hours. If you consider the value of the GA scholarship in addition to the compensation you receive for your work, the actual value is much greater than $13.25 an hour.

To increase your yearly earnings, you may also choose to work during the summers and earn $14 an hour, up to $560 a week!

Housing

If you're a single GA, your housing arrangement will be provided by the College when you start. You'll stay on campus with a roommate for $130 a month, utilities and furnishings included. Single occupancy is also available at $260 per month. After your contract begins, on-campus housing is free for the summer months you are here.

For married GAs, some housing may be available. Reach out to the Housing Coordinator at HousingCoordinator@pcci.edu for more details!

YOUR QUESTIONS ANSWERED

Do I have to work during the summer?

No, but summer work positions are available to increase your earnings.

How do I maintain my GA position?

Agree to a 2- or 3-year contract (depending on the program of study) and keep a 3.0 GPA (2.0 for M.Div. degree). Stay in good standing at work, complete your degree in the specified time given in your contract, and follow the policies outlined in the Graduate Assistant Handbook on Eagle's Nest.

What fees are not covered?

Although every fee related to earning your graduate degree is covered by your GA scholarship, students who fail a course are responsible for the cost of retaking it.

When would I begin?

Generally, you'll sign a contract that begins in August and requires attendance at the opening All Personnel Fellowship (usually two weeks before the fall semester starts). In some circumstances, you may request to begin in January.

What are my financial obligations?

You will be responsible for housing ($130 per month for single GAs; see question below about housing), books, and other class supplies. Since your assistantship is a scholarship, you will not be taxed on its value. You may eat all meals in the dining halls free of charge. Because employer-provided meals are taxable, outside of the M-F lunch, a small tax (usually less than 40 cents per meal) is deducted from your paystub.

Will I have summer classes?

All degree programs except M.A. in Studio Art and M.A. in Graphic Design will have between one and four 9-day classes during the summer.

Is housing available for married GAs?

Yes, but housing is not guaranteed. Talk to the Housing Coordinator about your specific circumstances, and we will do our best to accommodate your needs. Housing for families with children is not available if both spouses are graduate assistants, and housing is not available if either spouse is an undergraduate.

Will I attend Campus Church?

Yes. Unless you are earning a seminary degree and have received prior approval to intern at a local church, you will attend Campus Church. There are many exciting opportunities for you to get involved and become part of the church family!

Do I get a vacation?

Yes! You'll receive a two-week unpaid vacation between semesters at Christmas, generally starting the week before Christmas and ending the day after New Year's.

As a 10-month employee, your only responsibilities in the summer are summer classes. You may choose to work during the weeks that you are not taking classes.

Jared Powell
Master of Divinity

The GA Program has enabled me to further my education in class and even presented several opportunities for extra application and ministry. I've been able to continue interning at the local church I began at as an undergraduate, and even my on-campus job as a bus driver at PCA has given me chances to invest in the lives of students. Overall, my experience as a GA has been equipping me for my future ministry in a very cost-effective way.

Zaka Kakene
Curriculum and Instruction, Science

The GA Program has provided the teaching classes that I need to be a great teacher—plus, I get to learn from the best. I'm in an environment where I am constantly reminded that I exist to glorify the Lord, and I've been able to work in the Natural Sciences department, which has provided great experience that will be useful in my future. And knowing that working will pay my tuition off is a huge bonus!
