

The pins awarded today have the words strength, truth, and beauty just as they appear on our College seal. In the performance of their work, this class exemplifies:

Strength—by their dedication and perseverance and by their willingness to give themselves to the difficult work at hand.

Truth—by the integrity that is so essential in any profession, and especially in the profession of nursing, where their Christian ethical foundation guides decisions and values.

Beauty—by the gracious, excellent spirit with which they deliver necessary nursing care to their patients.
