

PENSACOLA CHRISTIAN COLLEGE

FINE ARTS CALENDAR

2024-2025

KEY INFORMATION

Use the icons below to determine how to reserve tickets or find the location of the performance.

No tickets are required for unmarked events.

Tickets

 Visit pcci.edu/tickets

 Visit pcci.edu/dp

must be reserved by a PCC student, graduate assistant, or personnel

Locations Key

VPA Visual and Performing Arts

CC Crowne Centre

DHA Dale Horton
Auditorium

EF Eagle Field

Immerse Yourself in the ARTS

The mission of Pensacola Christian College has been to promote the cause of Christ by providing a distinctively Christian-traditional, liberal arts education that develops students spiritually, intellectually, morally, culturally, and socially.

The College places high importance on students' cultural development and growing appreciation of the arts: visual art, theater, and music. Numerous exhibits, productions, and performances allow students to get involved and attend a variety of events throughout the year.

Come be a part of the vibrant arts community at PCC!
We invite you to attend any of the events found inside.

OCTOBER

11 Concert on the Green with Symphonic Band
6 p.m., EF

A campus favorite, Concert on the Green features many crowd-pleasing band selections. As the sun sets on Eagle Field, Director Nick Kozar and the PCC Symphonic Band provide an enjoyable concert in a fun picnic atmosphere.

19 Choral Concert Chamber Ensemble and Symphonic Choir
7 p.m., Mullenix Chapel

Chamber Ensemble and Symphonic Choir present a wide range of selections, including classical and sacred works.

26 PCCymphony Concert
7 p.m., DHA

Join Dr. Bombard and PCCymphony for an evening of music featuring English composers and authors.

Concert on the Green

Dramatic Production

24-26, 28 His Girl Friday 📺

8 p.m. Thurs., Fri., Mon., 2:30 & 8 p.m. Sat., VPA (Experimental Theater)

Newspaper editor Walter Burns loves everything about his ex-fiancée Hildy Johnson; she's an ace reporter with a nose for a story and a fiery personality to boot. But there is one obstacle to reclaiming her heart: Hildy is engaged. Determined to keep her in the office and in his heart, Walter plans every scheme imaginable to break Hildy's engagement—beginning with a murder case that she cannot refuse.

Dramatic Production

NOVEMBER

1 Senior Art Show

6 p.m., VPA

Graduating students display a collection of artwork in a capstone exhibit showcasing their accomplishments.

2 Graduate Art Show

7 p.m., VPA

Graduating master's students prepare and display a collection of accomplished works for their capstone exhibit.

Fine Arts Series

7-9 Fine Arts Series—The Horse and His Boy

Produced by the Academy of Arts

7 p.m. Thurs. & Fri., 3 p.m. Sat., DHA

With a cast of 45 actors, lifelike puppetry, stunning sets, and mesmerizing costumes, The Horse and His Boy brings the unforgettable world of Narnia to life onstage! This fantastic production will inspire all ages.

Produced with permission from the C.S. Lewis Company Limited.

Fine Arts Series

9 Brass & Woodwind Concert

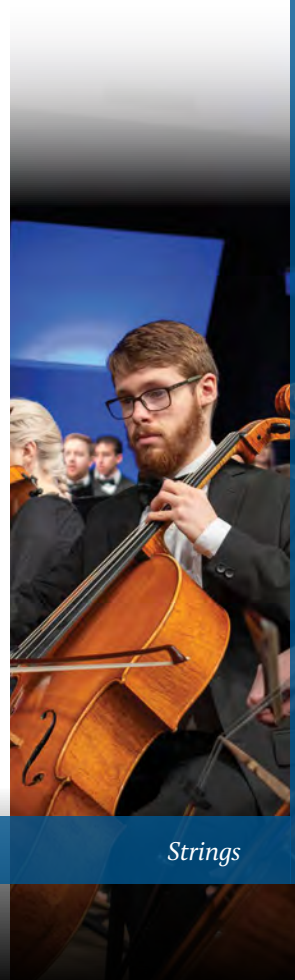

7 p.m., Mullenix Chapel

The Brass and Woodwind Ensembles present an exciting collection of works, including some written for unique instrument pairings.

16 Strings Concert

7 p.m., Mullenix Chapel

With a wide array of chamber music to choose from, the String Ensemble showcases a variety of memorable selections by celebrated composers.

Strings

Christmas Lights Celebration

19 With Voices of PCC & Symphonic Band

6 p.m., Main Drive (Varsity Terrace)

Join us for this memorable campus tradition! PCC students, faculty, staff, alumni, and friends gather to count down to the beginning of Christmas on campus with a dynamic synchronized light show, festive snacks, and the beautiful music of the season.

Dramatic Production

21–23 Tell Me a Heartwarming Tale 📺

8 p.m. Thurs. & Fri., 2:30 & 8 p.m. Sat., VPA (Experimental Theater)

Prepare for a cozy, delightful experience as the Dramatic Production classes present Tell Me a Heartwarming Tale!

Featuring a compilation of scenes by notable authors and playwrights, the Tell Me a Story series is a favorite on campus for aspiring actors and audiences alike.

A production prepared entirely by students for students, Tell Me a Heartwarming Tale will showcase lively and uplifting scenes that will warm your heart just in time for the holiday season.

DECEMBER

7 Handbell Concert

7 p.m., Mullenix Chapel

The Pensacola Christian College Handbell Choirs, led by Dr. Tim Willingham, present their annual Christmas Handbell Concert. This concert celebrates Christ's birth with sacred carols and traditional favorites.

Dramatic Production

FEBRUARY

Fine Arts Series

6-8 Heart and Humor

7 p.m. Thurs. & Fri., 2 p.m. Sat., DHA

Join us for an evening of Heart and Humor as the students, faculty, and staff of PCC present a pair of lighthearted one-act plays. Featuring a daring sword fight, a foiled proposal, a flustered hypochondriac, and an extravagant ruse, this double bill twists and turns with amusing antics around every corner.

14 Senior Art Show

6 p.m., VPA

Graduating students display a collection of artwork in a capstone exhibit showcasing their accomplishments.

15 Graduate Art Show

7 p.m., VPA

Graduating master's students prepare and display a collection of accomplished works for their capstone exhibit.

Senior Art Show

MARCH

1 Graduate Art Show

7 p.m., VPA

Graduating master's students prepare and display a collection of accomplished works for their capstone exhibit.

8 Chamber Concert Brass, Woodwind & String Ensembles

7 p.m., Mullenix Chapel

The Brass, Woodwind, and String Ensembles present a delightful array of classical pieces drawing from a wide variety of renowned composers.

15 Concerto Winners Concert with PCCymphony

7 p.m., DHA

Winners of the PCC Concerto Contest join PCCymphony under the direction of Dr. Charles Bombard.

21 Senior Art Show

6 p.m., VPA

Graduating students display a collection of artwork in a capstone exhibit showcasing their accomplishments.

Senior Art Show & PCCymphony

Dramatic Production

20–22 Tell Me a Story 📺

8 p.m. Thurs. & Fri., 2:30 & 8 p.m. Sat., VPA (Experimental Theater)

A beloved theatrical tradition on campus, the Tell Me a Story series is a full production mounted by the SP 307 and 308 classes. Students and volunteers fill every role, including director, actor, stage crew, set construction, costumes, and more. Including highlights from classic stories and plays, Tell Me a Story is bound to bring laughter and delight to your evening.

22 Graduate Art Show

7 p.m., VPA

Graduating master's students prepare and display a collection of accomplished works for their capstone exhibit.

22 Symphonic Band Concert

7 p.m., DHA

This spring's lively concert highlights energetic marches, dramatic overtures, and classic band literature.

Chamber Concert

APRIL

12 Handbell Concert

7 p.m., Mullenix Chapel

The PCC Handbell Choirs, consisting of ringers from a variety of majors, present their annual spring concert. This concert features a delightful mix of sacred and traditional handbell music.

Handbell Concert

Dramatic Production

10-12, 14 Our Hearts Were Young 📺

8 p.m. Thurs., Fri., Mon., 2:30 & 8 p.m. Sat., VPA (Experimental Theater)

Cornelia and Emily are ecstatic to travel alone for the first time in their young lives. Little do they know that their seabound journey will be met with many unexpected and hysterical mishaps along the way. How will they fare when their circumstances turn upside down?

Dramatic Production

Chamber Ensemble, Symphonic Choir & PCCymphony

MAY

Fine Arts Series

2 Mendelssohn's Elijah 7 p.m. Friday only, CC

The combined choirs of Chamber Ensemble and Symphonic Choir join PCCymphony under the direction of Dr. Cleusia Gonçalves to present Mendelssohn's Elijah. This oratorio tells the story of Elijah based on the Old Testament and recounts how God used Elijah on Mount Carmel to confront the false prophets of Baal and turn the Israelites back to God.

Commencement Contest

3 Art Showcase & Awards Presentation

6 p.m., VPA (Recital Hall)

This school year's final art show displays our students' best work! Winning selections from the Commencement Art Contest are showcased in the VPA during this gallery opening event.

3 Commencement Contest Awards Program

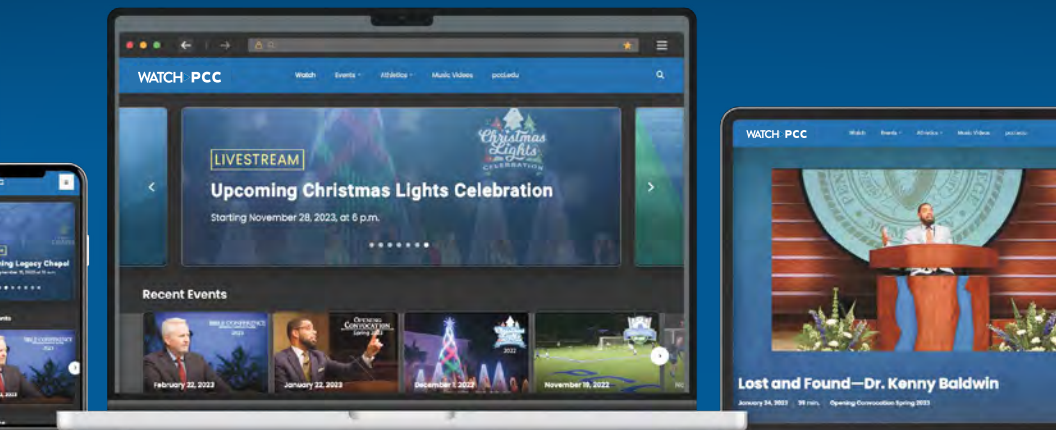

7:30 p.m., Mullenix Chapel

The Commencement Contest Awards Program features the best of our best! First-place winners of the music, speech, and writing categories showcase their skill and creativity in this Commencement week event.

Commencement Contest Awards Program

WATCH▶PCC

WatchPCC provides a place to view all our video content, including livestreamed events and music videos produced by Pensacola Christian College.

You can check out events like
Christmas Lights Celebration,
Concert on the Green, Chamber Concerts, and more—
as they happen and on demand.

Visit
watch.pcci.edu or watch via

Roku

Google TV

YouTube

pcci.edu/FineArtsCalendar