

PENSACOLA CHRISTIAN COLLEGE

FINE ARTS CALENDAR

2025-2026

Immerse Yourself in the ARTS

The mission of Pensacola Christian College has been to promote the cause of Christ by providing distinctively Christian-traditional higher education that develops students spiritually, intellectually, morally, culturally, and socially.

The College places high importance on students' cultural development and growing appreciation of the arts: visual art, theater, and music. Numerous exhibits, productions, and performances allow students to get involved and attend a variety of events throughout the year.

Come be a part of the vibrant arts community at PCC!
We invite you to attend any of the events found inside.

OCTOBER

11 Fine Arts Series: Triple Cortado

7 p.m., Crowne Centre

Triple Cortado performances are marked by virtuosity, heartfelt lyricism, and creativity, featuring original compositions and daring arrangements. Fueled by their connection with audiences, the trio thrives on innovation, collaboration, and the joy of exploring uncharted musical territory.

For more information, visit pcci.edu/tickets

18 Concert Series: Chamber Ensemble and Symphonic Choir

7 p.m., Mullenix Chapel

Join Chamber Ensemble and Symphonic Choir for a moving evening of music centered on God—our source of joy and peace, revealed through His blessings, care, and promises.

Triple Cortado

24 Concert on the Green with Symphonic Band
6 p.m., Eagle Field

A campus favorite, Concert on the Green features many crowd-pleasing band selections. As the sun sets on Eagle Field, the PCC Symphonic Band provides an enjoyable concert in a fun picnic atmosphere.

31 Exhibit Opening: Senior Visual Arts
6 p.m., Visual and Performing Arts

Graduating students display a collection of artwork in a capstone exhibit showcasing their accomplishments.

31 Concert Series: Brass & Woodwind
7 p.m., Mullenix Chapel

As part of PCC's Chamber Initiative, Brass Ensemble and Woodwind Ensemble offer larger settings for instrumental collaboration. Each group presents a mix of standard works and newer compositions, highlighting the specific qualities of their respective instruments.

Concert on the Green

NOVEMBER

1 Exhibit Opening: Graduate Visual Arts

6 p.m., Visual and Performing Arts

Graduating master's students prepare and display a collection of accomplished works for their capstone exhibit.

1 Jaffé Family Concert: A 90th Birthday Celebration

7 p.m., Dale Horton Auditorium

Featuring the talents of her children and grandchildren, renowned Brazilian pianist and PCC artist-in-residence Daisy de Luca Jaffé celebrates her 90th birthday with a concert of delightful classics and modern pieces.

6–8 Fine Arts Series: The Scarlet Pimpernel

7 p.m. Thurs. & Fri., 2 p.m. Sat., Dale Horton Auditorium

“They seek him here; they seek him there . . .” During France’s Reign of Terror, only one man stood between hundreds of French aristocrats and the guillotine: The Scarlet Pimpernel. With French spies threatening her brother’s life, Lady Marguerite Blakeney rushes to discover the identity of this vigilante, but how can she betray one man’s life to save another?

For more information, visit pcci.edu/tickets

Fine Arts Series

8 Concert Series: Strings

7 p.m., Mullenix Chapel

String Ensemble, a collaborative group of talented musicians, brings new works and standard literature to life through engaging, educational performances.

13 Chamber Series: Eialà

7 p.m., Mullenix Chapel

Enjoy an engaging evening of chamber music presented by Trio Eialà and Eialà Quintet (two violins, viola, cello, piano), featuring works by several Romantic composers.

13–15, 17 Dramatic Production: M'Liss, My Western Miss 8 p.m. Thurs., Fri., Mon., 2 p.m. Sat., VPA Experimental Theater

Deep in the hills of Smith's Pocket lives a gold mining town full of love and mystery. M'liss, My Western Miss takes you through a time of boots, saddles, and sarsaparilla. Come and enjoy the drama, comedy, and romance of this Old West adventure!

For more information, visit pcci.edu/dp

17 Chamber Series

7 p.m., Mullenix Chapel

Experience the power of chamber music as student musicians present works composed specifically for small groups.

Strings

20 Christmas Lights Celebration:
Featuring Voices of PCC & Symphonic Band
6 p.m., Main Drive (Varsity Terrace)

Join us for this memorable campus tradition! PCC students, faculty, staff, alumni, and friends gather to count down to the beginning of Christmas on campus with a dynamic synchronized light show, festive snacks, and the beautiful music of the season.

Christmas Lights

22 Concert Series: PCCymphony
7 p.m., Dale Horton Auditorium

PCCymphony takes you on a journey through the sights and sounds of the four seasons. This concert includes timeless classical masterpieces, nostalgic favorites, and fresh new works—all woven together through powerful musical storytelling.

DECEMBER

2 Chamber Series: Woodwind Quintet

7 p.m., Mullenix Chapel

The PCC Woodwind Quintet (flute, oboe, clarinet, bassoon, horn) performs an exciting blend of standard quintet repertoire and fresh, dynamic arrangements that showcase the group's versatility.

5 Chamber Series: Brass Quintet

7 p.m., Mullenix Chapel

PCC's Brass Quintet (two trumpets, horn, trombone, tuba) showcases the power and versatility of brass chamber music, from classic works to bold, modern compositions.

6 Concert Series: Handbells

7 p.m., Mullenix Chapel

The Pensacola Christian College Handbell Choirs, led by Dr. Tim Willingham, present their annual Christmas Handbell Concert. This concert celebrates Christ's birth with sacred carols and traditional favorites.

FEBRUARY

7 Fine Arts Series: Trio con Brio Copenhagen

7 p.m., Crowne Centre

Trio con Brio Copenhagen is recognized for its exceptional musicianship, fresh approach to the core repertoire, adventurous programming, and a commitment to bringing music to young people through their highly creative concerts.

For more information, visit pcci.edu/tickets

13 Exhibit Opening: Senior Visual Arts

6 p.m., Visual and Performing Arts

Graduating students display a collection of artwork in a capstone exhibit showcasing their accomplishments.

13 Exhibit Opening: Graduate Visual Arts

7 p.m., Visual and Performing Arts

Graduating master's students prepare and display a collection of accomplished works for their capstone exhibit.

28 Exhibit Opening: Graduate Visual Arts

7 p.m., Visual and Performing Arts

Graduating master's students prepare and display a collection of accomplished works for their capstone exhibit.

Trio con Brio Copenhagen

MARCH

13 Exhibit Opening: Senior Visual Arts

6 p.m., Visual and Performing Arts

Graduating students display a collection of artwork in a capstone exhibit showcasing their accomplishments.

14 Exhibit Opening: Graduate Visual Arts

7 p.m., Visual and Performing Arts

Graduating master's students prepare and display a collection of accomplished works for their capstone exhibit.

14 Concert Series: PCCymphony

7 p.m., Dale Horton Auditorium

PCCymphony presents orchestral works—from beloved classics to contemporary gems—featuring lush harmonies, dramatic contrasts, and expressive musical imagery.

Senior Art Show

20 Concert Series: Strings
6 p.m., Mullenix Chapel

Join String Ensemble for an engaging evening of music—featuring new works and standard literature, written to showcase the versatility of the string orchestra.

21 Concert Series: Symphonic Band
7 p.m., Dale Horton Auditorium

This spring's lively concert features energetic marches, dramatic overtures, and classic band literature—celebrating the power, precision, and tradition of concert band music.

Symphonic Band

26–28 Dramatic Production

8 p.m. Thurs., Fri. & Sat., VPA Experimental Theater

A beloved theater tradition on campus prepared for students by students. The SP 307 class is responsible for the entire production—set, lights, sound, costumes, makeup, casting, directing, and hosting.

For more information, visit pcci.edu/dp

27 Concert Series: Brass and Woodwind Ensembles

7 p.m., Mullenix Chapel

PCC's Brass and Woodwind Ensembles come together for an exciting celebration of chamber music. The concert features a mix of classic repertoire and modern arrangements, highlighting the unique timbres of each ensemble.

28 Concert Series: Chamber Ensemble and Symphonic Choir

7 p.m., Mullenix Chapel

Chamber Ensemble and Symphonic Choir present a beautiful collection of sacred and classical works spanning a wide range of styles and eras.

Dramatic Production

APRIL

11 Chamber Series: Eialà Quintet & Woodwind Quintet 7 p.m., Mullenix Chapel

Join us for an evening of musical collaboration featuring the PCC Woodwind Quintet, Trio Eialà, and Eialà Quintet. A wide range of chamber music showcases the art of communication and connection in small group settings.

18 Chamber Series: Brass Quintet and Friends 7 p.m., Mullenix Chapel

Celebrate the finale of this year's Chamber Initiative with PCC's Brass Quintet and other talented small ensembles as they present an engaging, interactive program of various musical styles.

Chamber Concert

23–25 Fine Arts Series: The New Mikado

7 p.m. Thurs. & Fri., 2 p.m. Sat., Dale Horton Auditorium

Step into a fresh reimagining of Gilbert and Sullivan's most beloved operetta with The New Mikado. Set in the vibrant world of the Italian Renaissance, this witty adaptation sparkles with iconic melodies, sharp satire, and larger-than-life characters.

Victorian bureaucracy and social pretense come under fire in this clever retelling, where romance and absurdity collide. Follow Niccolò and Amiam as they defy royal decrees, dodge executions, and pursue their happily-ever-after—if they can survive the red tape.

In a town bursting with mistaken identities, forbidden love, and bureaucratic chaos, one question remains: Can order ever be restored in the sweet little city of Tirmisu?

For more information, visit pcci.edu/tickets

Fine Arts Series

25 Concert Series: Handbells
7 p.m., Mullenix Chapel

The PCC Handbell Choirs, featuring ringers from a variety of majors, present their annual spring concert with a delightful mix of sacred and traditional selections.

Handbells Concert

MAY

1 Commencement Contest Showcase

7 p.m., Dale Horton Auditorium

The Commencement Contest Showcase features the best of our best! Winning selections from the Commencement Art Contest are revealed and featured throughout the Dale Horton Auditorium lobbies and VPA galleries. First-place winners of the music, speech, and writing categories showcase their skill and creativity in this Commencement week event.

Commencement Contest Showcase

WATCH▶PCC

A place to view all our video content, including livestreamed events and music videos produced by Pensacola Christian College. You can check out events like
Christmas Lights Celebration,
Concert on the Green, Chamber Series Concerts, and more—
as they happen and on demand.

Visit

watch.pcci.edu

or watch via

ROKU

Google TV

YouTube

pcci.edu/FineArtsCalendar