

PENSACOLA CHRISTIAN COLLEGE

FINE ARTS CALENDAR

2026-2027

Immerse Yourself in the ARTS

The mission of Pensacola Christian College has been to promote the cause of Christ by providing distinctively Christian-traditional higher education that develops students spiritually, intellectually, morally, culturally, and socially.

The College places high importance on students' cultural development and growing appreciation of the arts: visual art, theater, and music. Numerous exhibits, productions, and performances allow students to get involved and attend a variety of events throughout the year.

Come be a part of the vibrant arts community at PCC!
We invite you to attend any of the events found inside.

OCTOBER

10 Fine Arts Series: Liberty Voices with The Humdingers Barbershop Quartet
7 p.m., Crowne Centre

Liberty Voices proudly honors America's heritage through music. This acclaimed eight-part a cappella ensemble has entertained audiences nationwide, performing on national television, in parades, and before several U.S. presidents. Their inspiring blend of folk and patriotic music has made them a favorite at national and international events alike, earning them the distinction of being called "America's premier a cappella stylists" and "the United States' vocal ambassadors to the world."

For more information, visit pcci.edu/tickets

17 Concert Series: Symphonic Band
7 p.m., Dale Horton Auditorium

This fall concert presents a selection of classic band works, demonstrating a variety of styles while showcasing the versatile capabilities of the ensemble.

23 Concert on the Green with PCCymphony
8 p.m., Eagle Field

A campus favorite, Concert on the Green features many crowd-pleasing orchestral selections. Under the stars on Eagle Field, the PCCymphony features many beloved compositions about adventure and space.

Concert on the Green

NOVEMBER

5-7 Dramatic Production: A Trio of Suspects

8 p.m., VPA Experimental Theater

Students come together to perform this set of three one-act mysteries that range from a conspiracy to a courtroom drama.

For more information, visit pcci.edu/dp

6 Exhibit Opening: Senior Visual Arts

6-8 p.m., Visual and Performing Arts building

Graduating students display a collection of artwork in a capstone exhibit showcasing their accomplishments.

6 Exhibit Opening: Graduate Visual Arts

6-8 p.m., Visual and Performing Arts building

Graduating master's students prepare and display a collection of accomplished works for their capstone exhibit.

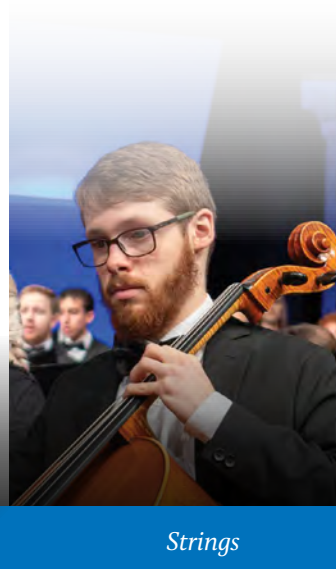

7 Concert Series: Chamber Ensemble and Symphonic Choir
7 p.m., Mullenix Chapel

Symphonic Choir joins the 250th anniversary celebration of our founding with music written by American composers while Chamber Ensemble presents selections encouraging listeners to “think on these things.”

13 Concert Series: Strings
7 p.m., Mullenix Chapel

String Ensemble brings music from England to life through engaging performances of standard literature and new works, featuring faculty collaboration.

Strings

19–21 Fine Arts Series: The Comedy of Errors

7 p.m. Thurs. & Fri., 2 p.m. Sat., Dale Horton Auditorium

Chaos reigns in Shakespeare's hilarious satire The Comedy of Errors. When two sets of identical twins, separated since childhood, unknowingly land in the same city, confusion spirals into one hilarious misunderstanding after another. Mistaken identities spark wrongful arrests, jealous accusations, and wildly tangled romances as servants are mistaken for masters and strangers are mistaken for family. As the madness escalates, tempers flare and loyalties are tested—but can truth untangle the confusion before everything falls apart?

For more information, visit pcci.edu/tickets

21 Concert Series: Brass & Woodwind
7 p.m., Mullenix Chapel

The brass and woodwind ensembles offer larger settings for instrumental collaboration. Each group presents a mix of standard works and newer compositions, highlighting the specific qualities of their respective instruments.

DECEMBER

1 Christmas Lights Celebration

6 p.m., Main Drive

Join us for this memorable campus tradition! PCC students, faculty, staff, alumni, and friends gather to count down to the beginning of Christmas on campus with a dynamic synchronized light show, festive snacks, and beautiful music of the season.

4 Chamber Series: Meraki & Friends

7 p.m., Mullenix Chapel

Meraki String Quartet is joined by others to bring standard works and newer compositions to the PCC campus.

Christmas Lights Celebration

5 Chamber Series: PCC Brass Quintet & PCC Woodwind Quintet

7 p.m., Mullenix Chapel

PCC's Brass Quintet (2 trumpets, horn, trombone, tuba) and Woodwind Quintet (flute, oboe, clarinet, horn, bassoon) perform an exciting blend of standard quintet repertoire and fresh, dynamic arrangements that showcase their versatility.

10-12 Dramatic Production: Tell Me a Nostalgic Story

8 p.m. Thurs. & Sat., 7 p.m. Fri., VPA Experimental Theater

In this heartwarming performance of sentimental, childhood stories, the audience is invited to look back and remember the familiar and imaginative times of their youth.

For more information, visit pcci.edu/dp

11 Chamber Series: Trio Eialà

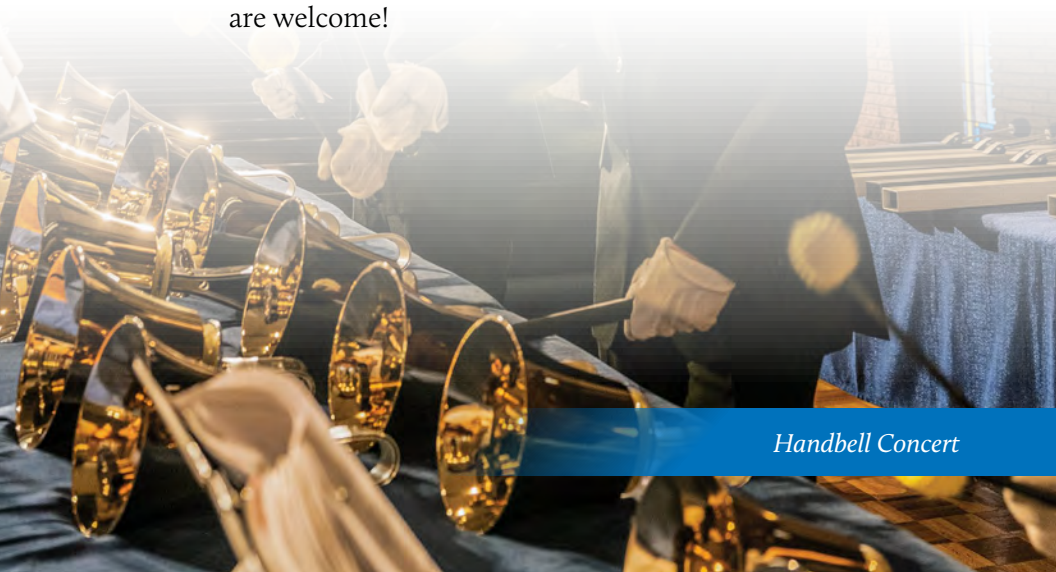

7 p.m., Mullenix Chapel

Enjoy an engaging evening of chamber music presented by Trio Eialà (violin, cello, piano).

12 Concert Series: Handbells

7 p.m., Mullenix Chapel

This festive concert features both traditional favorites and songs which celebrate God's amazing gift of salvation, through the birth of his son. Christmas sweaters are welcome!

Handbell Concert

FEBRUARY

19 Exhibit Opening: Senior Visual Arts
6–8 p.m., Visual and Performing Arts building

Graduating students display a collection of artwork in a capstone exhibit showcasing their accomplishments.

20 Concert Series: PCCymphony
7 p.m., Dale Horton Auditorium

PCCymphony presents orchestral works inspired by nature—from beloved classics to contemporary gems—featuring lush harmonies, dramatic contrasts, and expressive musical imagery.

20 Exhibit Opening: Graduate Visual Arts
7–9 p.m., Visual and Performing Arts building

Graduating master's students prepare and display a collection of accomplished works for their capstone exhibit.

MARCH

13 Exhibit Opening: MFA Visual Arts
7–9 p.m., Visual and Performing Arts building

MFA students prepare and display a collection of accomplished works for their thesis exhibit.

19 Exhibit Opening: Senior Visual Arts
6–8 p.m., Visual and Performing Arts building

Graduating students display a collection of artwork in a capstone exhibit showcasing their accomplishments.

19 Concert Series: Brass & Woodwind
7 p.m., Mullenix Chapel

PCC's Brass and Woodwind Ensembles come together for an exciting celebration of chamber music. The concert features a mix of classic repertoire and modern arrangements, highlighting the unique timbres of each ensemble.

20 Concert Series: PCC Concerto Contest Winners' Concert
7 p.m., Dale Horton Auditorium

Winners of the PCC Concerto Contest join PCCymphony under the direction of Dr. Charles Bombard.

Senior Art Show

APRIL

2 Concert Series: Strings 7 p.m., Mullenix Chapel

Join String Ensemble for an engaging evening of music—featuring new works and standard literature, written to showcase the versatility of the string orchestra.

3 Concert Series: Symphonic Band 7 p.m., Dale Horton Auditorium

This spring's lively concert features energetic marches, dramatic overtures, and classic band literature—celebrating the power, precision, and tradition of concert band music.

Chamber Concert

10 Concert Series: Chamber Ensemble and Symphonic Choir
7 p.m., Mullenix Chapel

Chamber Ensemble and Symphonic Choir present a beautiful collection of sacred and classical works spanning a wide range of styles and eras.

15–17 Dramatic Production

8 p.m. Thurs. & Fri., 8:30 p.m. Sat., VPA Experimental Theater

A beloved theater tradition on campus prepared for students by students. Students are responsible for the entire production—set, lights, sound, costumes, makeup, casting, directing, and hosting.

For more information, visit pcci.edu/dp

Dramatic Production

24 Concert Series: Handbells

7 p.m., Mullenix Chapel

The PCC Handbell Choirs, featuring ringers from a variety of majors, present their annual spring concert with a delightful mix of sacred and traditional selections.

29–30 Fine Arts Series: Our Town

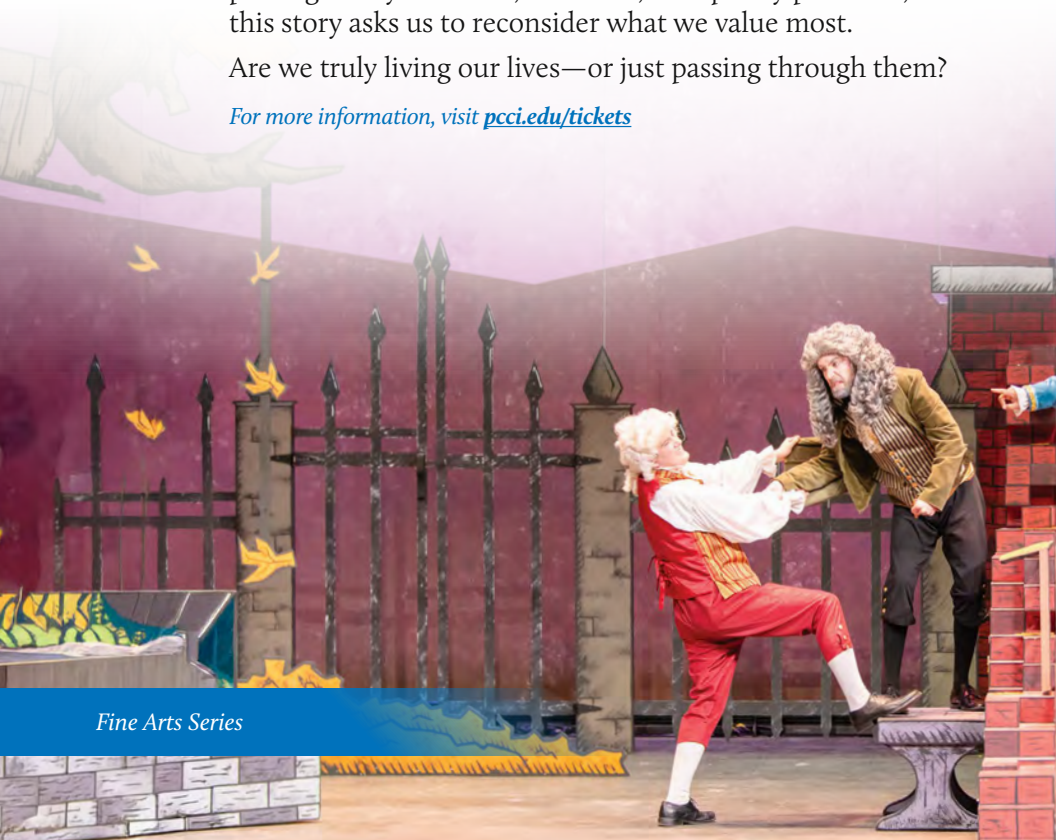

7 p.m., Dale Horton Auditorium

Step into the quiet world of Grover's Corners, where life unfolds in familiar, generational rhythms—childhood, love, marriage, and loss. In Thornton Wilder's Our Town, everyday moments take on new weight, revealing the fragile beauty of time and the life we so often rush through.

With striking simplicity, the play draws back the curtain on life itself, revealing what is so easily missed in the ordinary passing of days. Honest, reflective, and quietly powerful, this story asks us to reconsider what we value most.

Are we truly living our lives—or just passing through them?

For more information, visit pcci.edu/tickets

MAY

1 Fine Arts Series Cont.: Our Town

2 p.m., Dale Horton Auditorium

3,6 Chamber Series

7 p.m., Mullenix Chapel

Experience the power of chamber music as student musicians present works composed specifically for small groups.

7 Commencement Contest Showcase
7:30 p.m., Dale Horton Auditorium

The Commencement Contest Showcase features the best of our best! Winning selections from the Commencement Art Contest are revealed and featured throughout the Dale Horton Auditorium lobbies and VPA galleries. First-place winners of the music, speech, and writing categories showcase their skill and creativity in this Commencement week event.

Commencement Contest Showcase

WATCH▶PCC

A place to view all our video content, including livestreamed events and music videos produced by Pensacola Christian College. You can check out events like
Christmas Lights Celebration,
Concert on the Green, Chamber Series Concerts, and more—
as they happen and on demand.

Visit

watch.pcci.edu or watch via

Roku

Google TV

YouTube

pcci.edu/FineArtsCalendar