HOPE IN TROUBLED TIMES

During days of fear and uncertainty, many are searching for peace, for comfort, and for assurance that all is well. For the Christian who seeks to follow God, every day should be filled with hope.

"Hope thou in God."—PSALM 42:11
"The LORD is my portion, saith my soul; therefore will I hope in him. The LORD is good unto them that wait for him, to the soul that seeketh him."

—LAMENTATIONS 3:24–25

Our lives should be filled with hope, not despair, especially since this might be the day when Jesus comes.

"Looking for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ."—TITUS 2:13

Almost 40 years ago, when trying to decide on a name for this ministry, Rejoice in the Lord was chosen since it sums up the essence of the Christian life in a few words.

"Rejoice in the Lord always: and again I say, Rejoice."—PHILIPPIANS 4:4

Christians are to rejoice in the Lord, delight in His ways, follow His leading, and wait patiently on Him. Scripture admonishes us to be still and know that He is God and to rest in Him. The Lord is our hope, and He is our strength. Our trust is in Him; not man, not government, but God alone.

At Rejoice, we want to share this message of hope, and proclaim to all that a personal relationship with Jesus Christ is the only hope for mankind. Will you partner with us in fulfilling the Great Commission by praying for us and by helping to sustain this ministry with your financial support so that many others can truly rejoice in the Lord? We need your support during these troubled times so that God's work through this ministry can continue to reach the world.
