Hide and Seek

Recently, while visiting a family in our church, my visit began like this: I rang the doorbell and the father answered the door. He was excited to see me and said that his kids were out playing hide-and-seek. As we turned around, his boys began popping their heads out from behind trees and bushes and rocks and . . . well, lots of things (they have lots of boys!). The point is, what looked normal at one moment, turned out to be a hiding place—a place of shelter from the one doing the seeking.

In like fashion, God has a wonderful way of sheltering and hiding those who belong to Him from those who are seeking their hurt. Psalm 27:5 records, “For in the time of trouble he shall hide me in his pavilion: in the secret of his tabernacle shall he hide me; he shall set me up upon a rock.” The words “pavilion” and “tabernacle” communicate the idea of a dwelling place or place of habitation. What does this mean for us? It means we have protection in God’s pavilion, and we get to dwell with Him in His place of habitation. When we find ourselves in trouble, God says, “I’m going to hide you in a place where the enemy cannot find you; you are coming to My house.” In Job 5:7 we read, “Yet man is born unto trouble, as the sparks fly upward.” Trouble is inevitable. When it comes, rest in the fact that you’ve got the best hiding place—ever!

Rejoice in the Lord communicates the truths of Scripture to a needy world. God’s message of redemption through Jesus Christ is our only hope. Your support for Rejoice helps us encourage Christians and spread the gospel. Will you pray for us as we work to bring uplifting music and messages from God’s Word each week? Would you also consider supporting Rejoice with a gift to help us meet the monthly financial needs of this ministry? We need the prayers and gifts of God’s people to carry on the mission—become a share partner today!

Ponder the Path

Francie Taylor

This 31-day devotional shares insights to help us walk with God, not run ahead of Him. Each devotional involves both thought and action that when combined with yielding, will encourage us to ponder the path and not blaze the trail. You’ll find ways to avoid obstacles we face when we are running a self-directed course instead of walking with God. Francie is the author of several books, a frequent ladies conference speaker, and a faithful member of Campus Church.

For your gift this month to Rejoice in the Lord, we will send you the devotional book, Ponder the Path. Complete and return the enclosed reply card, call 1-800-223-9727, or visit RejoiceTV.org.

Viewers Respond

“We faithfully watch your services and appreciate the godly sermons and applications for godly living. We love hearing the hymns and enjoy singing along.” —Tennessee

“You will never know just how much I look forward to Rejoice on Sunday night. The music by the choir and the great hymns I’ve sung all my life are a blessing that is hard to describe. I cannot thank you enough for making this wonderful worship experience possible.” —Virginia

“I watch Rejoice in the Lord as often as I can. I always enjoy the teaching and take notes on nuggets I want to remember. The teaching is informative and easy to follow as well as interesting and thought provoking.” —Pennsylvania

“I am thankful for your broadcast. I enjoy the music, the singing, and the sermons. Your Sunday service is my extended church service. I attend my church on Sunday morning, and then later in the day I watch your service. It’s like having a second church home.” —Ohio

“I am blessed by the Rejoice Choir and Orchestra and the practical, expository preaching of God’s Word. The expression ‘God-honoring’ is exactly what comes to mind when I think of Rejoice.” —Ontario, Canada
