When the Play Is Over

Many believe that the “play of life” will continue on indefinitely, but that is not correct. Obviously, all of us are born and all of us die. However, death is never the conclusion. The Bible very clearly tells us that when our life on earth is over, comparatively speaking, eternity is just beginning. C.S. Lewis was a man of unusual insights; in Mere Christianity, he wrote:

When the author walks on to the stage, the play is over. God is going to invade, all right; but what is the good of saying you are on His side then, when you see the whole natural universe melting away like a dream and something else . . . comes crashing in . . . ? For this time it will be God without disguise; something so overwhelming that it will strike either irresistible love or irresistible horror into every creature. It will be too late then to choose your side. . . . That will not be the time for choosing; It will be the time when we discover which side we really have chosen, whether we realized it before or not. Now, today, this moment, is our chance to choose the right side.

Someday, when the play of life has concluded, and Jesus Christ walks on to the stage of this world, the time for choosing will have ended. How grateful we are that, for all who know Christ personally, while the play may be over, true life will have just begun. The time of preparation is now.

Behold, I come quickly. Revelation 22:12

As this year comes to an end, and we reflect on all that has transpired, we are thankful for each of our viewers and grateful to many who support this ministry through giving. Some of our areas have not met their financial obligations this year to pay the cost of keeping Rejoice in the Lord on the air. Please prayerfully consider making a generous year-end gift to help us make up these deficits. Your investment in this ministry helps us continue to reach your area and around the world with the truth that transforms lives.
