Let It Shine

— A Word from Pastor Jeff Redlin —

In the 2nd century, a letter was written to Diognetus, a man considered to be one of the best thinkers in the Roman Empire. The letter, written by Mathetes, attempted to summarize the people known as "Christians." Both Diognetus and Mathetes lived in the day of the first church alongside the first apostles. The description of these early believers follows:

They obey the prescribed laws and, at the same time, surpass the laws by the way they live their lives. They love all men yet are persecuted by all. They are unknown and condemned. They are put to death and restored to life. They are poor yet make many rich. They lack all things yet abound. They are dishonored, and yet in their dishonor they are glorified. They are evil spoken of and yet are justified. They are reviled yet blessed. They are insulted and repay the insult with honor. They do good yet are punished as evil doers.

This is the general impression that the world had of the early church. In a culture that was corrupt to the core, Christianity was known as anything but corrupt.

Integrity, honesty, kindness, and goodness seemed to permeate the church. The goodness of Christianity shone brightly against the darkness of the Roman corruption. Unhindered by the cost or the consequences, Christianity, when lived as God intends, never fails to stand out as radically different from the world. Christians are the light of the world. Light can do nothing but what it was created to do. So let it shine!

Ye are the light of the world . . . Let your light so shine . . . that they may see.

Matthew 5:14,16

Rejoice in the Lord has endeavored to be a light in the darkness for more than 40 years. For ye were sometimes darkness, but now are ye light in the Lord: walk as children of light. Ephesians 5:8
