

WHAT TO BRING

All items apply to campers, parents, and sponsors attending camp.

CLOTHING

Note: Clothing should be loose-fitting enough to allow for gathering an inch of fabric on either side of the garment without stretching the material. Clothing should be appropriate and well-kept without tears or holes. Classy casual dress is encouraged for evening services.

GIRLS

- Modest shirts that cover the shoulders (no low, spaghetti-strap, or midriff-showing shirts or shirts with writing or pictures that are contrary to biblical principles)
- Walking or athletic-style shorts that extend to the top of the kneecap (no short shorts), loose-fitting jeans, slacks, or capris (jeans or wind/athletic pants required to rock climb)
- Modest swimsuit that covers the midriff (T-shirt to wear over swimsuit is required when surfing on the FlowRider.)

GUYS

- Shirts (no cutoff sleeves or shirts with writing or pictures that are contrary to biblical principles)
- Shorts that extend to the top of the kneecap, casual pants, wind/athletic pants, or jeans (jeans or wind/athletic pants required to rock climb)
- Swim trunks (trunk-style only)
- No jewelry other than a chain, watch, or rings

Teen Extreme Youth Camp/Youth Outreach Ministry reserves the right to ask anyone to change his or her clothing if, in the opinion of the staff, it does not comply with these expectations.

BEDDING & OTHER ITEMS

- Medicine
 - All routine or as-needed prescription medications must be kept and administered by the camp nurse, and upon request, the camp nurse can also keep/administer any over-the-counter medications, vitamins/supplements, or essential oils your camper brings. An Authorization for Administration of Medication form is required for any medications, vitamins/supplements, or essential oils that will be kept by the camp nurse.
 - Medications should be in the original containers and placed in a clear, resealable bag with the camper's name clearly noted.
