

WHAT TO BRING

All items apply to campers, parents, coaches, and sponsors attending camp.

CLOTHING

Clothing should be loose-fitting enough to allow for gathering an inch of fabric on either side of the garment without stretching the material. NEXT Summer Camps/Youth Outreach Ministry reserves the right to ask anyone to change his or her clothing if, in the opinion of the staff, it does not comply with these listed expectations.

GIRLS

- Modest shirts that cover the shoulders (no low, spaghetti-strap, or midriff-showing shirts or shirts with writing or pictures that are contrary to biblical principles)
- Walking or athletic-style shorts that extend to the top of the kneecap (no short shorts), loose-fitting jeans, slacks, or capris
- Modest swimsuit that covers the midriff (T-shirt to wear over swimsuit is required when surfing on the FlowRider.)

Note: Clothing should be loose-fitting and appropriate. Classy, casual dress is encouraged for evening services. Pants are required to rock climb.

Criminal Justice Camp: athletic-style or tactical pants (not jeans) or shorts that come to the top of kneecap, gym shoes, extra pairs of socks, and ball cap. You may also bring tactical boots.

Drama Camp: black flats and either a black knee-length dress or a white blouse and black knee-length skirt for the Showcase. Clothes for painting and building scenery need to be in good condition.

Engineering & Science Camp and Pre-Medicine Camp: closed-toe shoes

Music Academy: black dress shoes and either a concert black dress (longer than knee-length; not sleeveless) or a black blouse and skirt (longer than knee-length) for the Gala Concert. Recital dress is Sunday/formal dress with dress shoes. Cellists should bring long, full skirts.

GUYS

- Shirts (no cutoff sleeves or shirts with writing or pictures that are contrary to biblical principles)
- Shorts that extend to the top of the kneecap, casual pants, wind/athletic pants, or jeans (jeans or wind/athletic pants required to rock climb)
- Swim suit (trunk-style only)

Note: Clothing should be loose-fitting and appropriate. Classy, casual dress is encouraged for evening services. Jewelry other than a chain, watch, or rings should not be worn.

Criminal Justice Camp: athletic-style or tactical pants (not jeans) or shorts that come to the top of kneecap, gym shoes, extra pairs of socks, and ball cap. You may also bring tactical boots.

Drama Camp: a white dress shirt, black pants, dress shoes, and socks for the Showcase. Clothes for painting and building scenery need to be in good condition.

Engineering & Science Camp and Pre-Medicine Camp: closed-toe shoes

Music Academy: a white long-sleeved dress shirt, a conservative tie, and black dress slacks, dress shoes, and socks for performances. Black suit jackets will be provided or participants may bring their own.

Soccer Camp: shin guards, shoes for indoor soccer, and cleats

BEDDING & OTHER ITEMS

- Medicine
 - All routine or as-needed prescription medications must be kept and administered by the camp nurse, and upon request, the camp nurse can also keep/administer any over-the-counter medications, vitamins/supplements, or essential oils your camper brings. An Authorization for Administration of Medication form is required for any medications, vitamins/supplements, or essential oils that will be kept by the camp nurse.
 - Medications should be in the original containers and placed in a clear, resealable bag with the camper's name clearly noted.
- Pillow
- Sleeping Bag or Twin Sheets and Blanket
- Towels and Washcloths
- Laundry Bag
- Toiletries (Hand Soap, Shampoo and Conditioner, Toothpaste, Body Wash, etc.)
- Umbrella or Rain Jacket
- Sunscreen
- Water Bottle
- Spending Money (See nextsummercamps.com/activities for additional activities.)
- Bible
- Notebook and Pen

Note: Campers are permitted to bring cell phones; however, we encourage these to be used for communication purposes only.

CAMP-SPECIFIC ITEMS

Drama: A 1–2 minute memorized reading from literature (poem, story, or essay)

Engineering and Science: A basic calculator, ruler, watch, and safety goggles

History and Political Science: Participants may visit the National Naval Aviation Museum and need to bring a photo ID to camp for admittance. Those wanting to view the Giant Screen Theater at the museum should keep cash available for the desired shows.

Music Academy: At least two fully prepared solos (with accompanist's music) as well as music the participants are currently working on. Music will be supplied for orchestra and ensembles. Orchestra members should bring their own instruments or call us at 850-969-1690 at least two weeks before camp to make arrangements to rent. Piano campers receive free piano use.

Nursing: Your own stethoscope, or order one for $15 by calling us at 850-969-1690 at least two weeks before camp

Soccer: A water bottle, sunscreen, and bug spray

Writing: A pencil, notebook paper, pocket folder, and USB drive for document storage

WHAT NOT TO BRING

- Weapons of any kind such as guns, tasers, stun guns, knives (3" or smaller pocketknives allowed), or pepper spray
- Hazardous items such as combustible fluids, lighters, laser pointers, candles, candle warmers, incense, or fireworks
- Tobacco products (including chewing tobacco, e-cigarettes, and other vaping devices), alcoholic beverages, and any illegal drugs
- Entertainment items such as televisions, gaming consoles, computers, laptops, tablets, DVDs, movies, headphones, or earbuds
- Items with divisive symbols
- Yoga/spandex pants